

Invitation to 'Songs for the River // Canciones para el río' Exhibition

“Songs for the River // Canciones para el río” by art photographer Kristina Aurora is a poetic tribute to Colombia's Atrato River, ravaged by illegal gold mining and mercury poisoning. With 85% of the country's gold mined illegally, Colombia ranks among the world's worst for mercury pollution. This crisis affects both local communities and global ecosystems, as mercury spreads through rainfall into the oceans.

Kristina Aurora travelled to Colombia with her vintage Hasselblad camera in 2023. The artist's exhibition at Dark Gallery CPH seeks to offer a space for reflection, where
